Additional Order.

161. Rhodoraceæ

The names of the Natural Orders ending in ACEÆ are chiefly derived from Generic Names, as CAMPANULACEÆ from CAMPANULA; such as end in æ only are nat. as COMPOSITÆ, compound flowers; CRUCIFERÆ, cross-shaped; LABIATÆ, lip-flowered, &c.

The Natural Orders, for reference to which the numbers 63 to 161 afford great facility, will prove of essential service to the Amateur in forming, by comparison, an opinion of any plant in this Catalogue which is unknown to him; for instance, Asagallis, Cyclamen, Dodecatheon, Primula sinensis or Chinese Primrose, Auricula and Polyanthus belong to the same Natural Order, Primulaceæ, No. 136; consequently should he not know Dodecatheon, the knowledge of one or more of the others would greatly assist him in forming an opinion of it. In making comparisons, the height of the plant should however be considered. The Aster and the Daisy, for example, belong to the same Natural Order 85, but at first sight there does not appear to be much resemblance between them, the difference in the magnitude of the flowers and height of the plants being so very great.

N.B. The Numbers 1 to 24 represent the 24 Linnean Classes (see Column 1st), whereas those indicating the Linnean Orders (2nd Column) and the Natural Orders (3rd Column) are arbitrary; their signification is given above (see Page 3rd). Example, Campanula, 5, 25, 77, belongs to the 5th Linnean Class, Pentandria, the flower having 5 Stamens; to the Linnean Order Monogynia, from its having 1 Style (Pistillum); and to the Natural Order Campanulaceæ, plants with Bell-shaped Flowers. See page 7, No. 184.

MISCELLANEOUS FLOWER SEEDS.

The following Plants, with few exceptions, have no popular name; thus Acæcia speciosa is rendered showy Acacia, &c.—In giving orders it is sufficient to mention the numbers and date of this Catalogue, 1854. N.B. The numbers being changed every year, it is absolutely necessary to say from what Catalogue they are taken.

TEXIAN SEEDS.

J. Carter begs to inform his customers that he has received advice of a shipment of Flower Seeds from Texas, consisting of 20 sorts, which he believes to be such as will give great satisfaction. Of those he sent out last season, the NEW PINK ANNUAL proved one of the most beautiful introduced of late years. It will be found in the Catalogue under the name of Sabbatia campestris, No. 867. The Texian Lupine, now Lupinus sinbramosus, No. 637, is also extremely pretty, and quite distinct. Of the other Annuals he has not yet received any account, but he has no doubt they have proved equally satisfactory. Among the new collection will be found a splendid Thorn, Cratægus, bearing a large spike of pure white blossom and orange-coloured berries, which is represented of much quicker growth and far more beautiful than any of this country, and perfectly hardy. The trade can be supplied in large quantities.

Nos. 1303 to 1322.—A collection of 20 Texian Flower Seeds, 15s.
